

REMARKS

Examiner Wilkens is thanked for the courtesy of the telephone interview of May 12, 2004.

The claims have been amended to clarify the existing distinctions between the Applicant's invention and the cited prior art. Additionally, the changes herein made intend to cure the informalities noted in the Office Action.

In accord with the discussion during the interview, none of the cited art shows a walker and tray combination including a tray that extends cantileverly from a walker to form a ledge extending outwardly therefrom when the tray is in the primary, horizontal position. Because none of the cited art shows, teaches, or suggests this element, allowance is solicited.

Respectfully Submitted,
